

Road to London 2012: Updates on our Para-Dressage Team

2011 is an important year for our team to compete in selected Olympic Qualifiers. In order to qualify for the Paralympics Games 2012, they will need to earn the best team scores among the Asian region.

Singapore will have our very first Para-Dressage Team, led by our Beijing Paralympics Games 2008 double Bronze Medalist Laurentia Tan and her two younger team-mates Gemma Foo and Maximillian Tan, aiming to earn a team ticket to the London 2012, with their first team performance in the upcoming CPEDI3* Hartpury 2011 from 11 to 15 July 2011.

From left-right: Volker Eubel, Maximillian Tan, David Tan, Gemma Foo, Jannie Tan, Laurentia Tan & Jacqueline Lim

Currently, the riders are undergoing weeks of intensive training in Germany & England with our National Coaches Volker Eubel and Penny Pegrum, in preparation for the qualifier.

Our team horses – Rely on Me and Avalon, will also be making their maiden road trip to UK this coming Saturday 2 July.

You can post your love & support for the team on facebook via this link!

We will continue to bring you updates on their progress.